

2022 ASTRO HEALTH POLICY FELLOWSHIP

What is the Health Policy Fellowship?

- The Health Policy Fellowship is designed to provide exposure to ASTRO's health policy reimbursement and coding activities and develop the next generation of ASTRO health policy leaders.
- Health Policy Fellows will gain experience and knowledge in radiation oncology code development and valuation, coding guidance, payer engagement, and payment reform activities.

Who should apply to be an ASTRO Health Policy Fellow?

- ASTRO members who are interested in becoming future ASTRO health policy leaders through the development of subject-matter expertise in ASTRO's health policy initiatives.

What are the requirements for becoming an ASTRO Health Policy Fellow?

- Must be a Board-Certified Radiation Oncologist or Medical Physicist.
- Must have at least five years of practice experience.
- Must be an ASTRO member.

How to apply for the Fellowship Program?

- To apply for the Health Policy Fellowship, please email your application documents to Adam.Greathouse@astro.org.

Key Dates:

- September 2, 2022: Application Submission Deadline
- October 10, 2022: Selected candidates will be notified
- October 23-26, 2022: ASTRO Annual Meeting
- HP Fellow Orientation (date TBD)
- December 10, 2022: ASTRO Virtual Coding and Coverage Seminar
- January 11-14, 2023: RUC Meeting
- February 2-4, 2023: CPT Meeting

Note: Fellows will be given the opportunity to participate in the RUC/CPT meetings if held virtually.

For further information or questions, please contact Adam Greathouse at Adam.Greathouse@astro.org.