

The 2020 ASTRO Annual Meeting will feature an enhanced virtual educational experience, unlike any other online meeting you may have participated in previously. ASTRO President Thomas J. Eichler, MD, FASTRO, host of ASTRO 2020, is excited to share some of the details about the world-class meeting ASTRO has planned for you in October. Watch the video to learn more.

Attendee registration for the 2020 ASTRO Annual Meeting is now open, and we are anticipating higher than ever attendance. Exhibitor registration will open in August. We could not be more excited to have most of you back exhibiting with us! This year's Exhibit Hall is a highly interactive and engaging online experience where you will be able to showcase your latest products and services and interact with attendees through one-on-one or group chats.

Additional information is coming soon about this new and exciting Annual Meeting, including:

- Complimentary, and fully customized, customer invitations. New this year, ASTRO is offering these custom invitations to help reach your intended audience. Learn more about this new resource.
- In-depth data analytics provided to all booth levels.
- Robust chat feature included in all booth levels, with helpful tips on how to best utilize this feature.
- Individual planning calls over the coming weeks to all Level 6 and Custom Level booths to begin their transformative booth experience.

If you haven't already committed to joining us in October with a virtual exhibit, we invite you to learn more about the platform and the ASTRO Annual Meeting experience.
